‘Resolving Healthcare Business Disputes Through ADR’ CLE is March 5

This CLE is set for Thursday, March 5 at noon on Zoom. This program will provide a practical look at how healthcare business disputes are handled in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania and how mediation and arbitration can be used effectively at various stages of litigation.

Drawing on judicial and industry perspectives, the program examines when ADR works, when it does not, and what judges, parties, and neutrals expect from the process, with particular focus on the federal court’s ADR framework and the American Health Law Association’s ADR program.
